Opening Date: June 20th, 2011
Closing Date: August 8th, 2011
Entry Fee: $125.00/player

The Gates Four Invitational is a 36-hole stroke play championship. The field is open to all male amateurs and limited to the first 128 paid contestants. Applications for entry will open on June 20th, 2011 and close on August 8th, 2011 or upon receipt of a full field.

Eligibility

Entry fees must be received by Gates Four by August 8th, 2011 for inclusion in this year's tournament. The $125.00 entry fee includes two tournament rounds, a practice round (cart fee additional), range balls throughout the tournament, cookout following Saturday's round, and flight prizes. Practice rounds may be scheduled upon confirmation of entry the week of August 8th through August 12th, 2011.

Rules

The 2011 USGA Rules will govern play. Gates Four is a non-metal spike facility. The Club also requires appropriate attire, collared shirts are required, denim jeans and denim slacks are not appropriate at any time.

Format/Awards

The Men's division will compete from the blue tees on Saturday, the Senior division will compete from the white tees, and the Super Seniors will compete from the silver tees. The field will be flighted for Sunday's final round. Sunday's final round will be played from the championship tees in the top two flights, while the remaining flights will compete from the blue tees. Contestants playing from championship tees will be eligible for the overall championship. There will be a Senior division for male competitors ages 50-65 and Super Seniors at 66 and over. NOTE: Seniors and Super Seniors compete only in their division and are not eligible for the overall championship.

Starting times for Saturday will be available by calling the golf shop at 910-425-2176 on Thursday August 11th by 7:00 p.m. The JP Riddle Cup will be presented to the overall champion. Gift certificates will be awarded to the first four places in each flight, plus the overall champion. All awards are based on a full field of 128 players.
